JP107 Prize List and Scheduling

1. Management may change the Table under which a class of under $25,000 is originally offered due to unforeseen circumstances provided the competitors are notified a minimum of two hours in advance; examples include, but are not limited to: impending inclement weather, excessive entries, possible loss of daylight. Any competitors already entered in the class not wishing to compete under the new Table must be given a full refund of entry fees.
